

Class - IV EVS

6. Eating Together

I. Know These Terms:

1. Host - A person who invites guests to his/her house.
2. Volunteer - A person who offers to do something without being forced or paid.

II . Answer the following Questions:

1. Define community eating?

Ans. When a large number of people eat together on specific occasions, it is called community eating.

2. Write the benefits of community eating?

Ans. Community eating teaches us equality and makes us feel a part of the community.

3. Write two advantages of Midday meals?

Ans. The advantages of midday meals are as follows.

- It provides nutritious food to children.
- It encourages children to come to school to study.