

CLASS III - DECEMBER MONTH NOTES

6. THE INTERNET

I. Tick the correct option.

1. Which of the following is the use of a computer network?
(c) Both

2. Which of the following can be done on the Internet?
(c) Both

3. A browser is a
(a) software application

4. Which of the following is also known as a URL?
(b) Website address

II. Fill in the blanks using the given words.

1. Internet stands for Interconnected Network.

2. A website is a collection of web pages.

3. Search engines allow us to search or find information from the Internet.

4. E-mail is the fastest way of sending mails.

5. Google is one of the most popular search engines in the world.

III. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements.

1. The Internet is the biggest network of computers in the world. T

2. All the computers in the world are connected to each other through Internet. T

3. We cannot get any information from the Internet. F

4. Every website has a home page. T

5. Bing is a web page. F

IV. Define the following:

1. Internet

- Internet stands for Interconnected Network.
- The Internet is a huge network of computers connected to each other at different places in the world.

2. URL:

- The full form of the URL is Uniform Resource Locator.
- URL is the address of a website

3. Web page:

- It is a digital page that is a part of a website.
- A web page generally consists of text, images, audio files, videos, links to other pages, animations, etc.

4. www:

- World Wide Web (www) is the largest collection of information on the Internet.
- WWW contains millions of websites that provide information.

V. Short answer questions.

1. What is a web browser?

A web browser is a software application that allows the user to view and explore information on the web.

2. What is e-mail?

Electronic mail, popularly known as e-mail, is a method of sending messages from one computer to another through a communication link which is the Internet.

3. What is Google?

Google is the most popular search engine.

F. Long answer questions.

1. Write any two uses of the Internet.

The two uses of the Internet are:

- The Internet helps us to search for information on any topic and gain knowledge.
- The Internet helps us to share information and also helps us to share resources such as printers, scanners, fax machines, etc.

2. Mention the requirements to establish an Internet connection.

The requirements for connecting to the Internet are:

Computer System: We need a processing device like Laptop, Tablet, PC, etc. to use Internet services.

Telephone Line: A telephone line is needed to connect the modem to the Internet service provider.

Internet Connection: Connection provided by the Internet Service Provider (ISP).

Broadband: Broadband refers to high-speed Internet access.

3. Write any two online safety rules.

Two online safety rules are:

- Never use the Internet without the supervision of an adult, i.e. your parents or teachers.
- Do not share your personal details with someone you do not know.

4. List any two advantages of the Internet.

The two advantages of the Internet are:

- Social Networking: Through social networking sites, we can share information with people across the world. Example: Facebook and Twitter
- E-Learning:
 - E-learning is an electronic medium for reading and learning
 - It is a computer-based training.

5. List any two disadvantages of the Internet.

The two disadvantages of the Internet are:

- Information Hacking:
 - Hackers are people who steal personal information.
 - Hackers can easily gain access to any computer when connected to internet.
- Virus Attacks:
 - Virus threats affect the computer system and deletes all the important file.